

Dr. med. France Laurencet

FMH Internal Medicine, Haematology and Oncology

Languages

FR,EN,DE

Education

- Assistant then Senior Registrar at the Medical Clinic, Medullary Transplant Unit, Division of Oncology, Cantonal University Hospital, Geneva, and Division of Haematology and Transfusion Centre, University Hospital, Geneva.
- Consultant physician to the Haematology Division, CESCO and the Geriatric Hospital until December 2011.

Work Experience

Experience in clinical oncology and haematology since 1989,

Based in Geneva since 1998 as an FMH oncologist and haematologist,

Laboratory in medical practice,

Marrow punctures, transfusions,

Chemotherapy and immunotherapy in the practice or clinic.

- Registered with Clinique Générale Beaulieu since 1998,
- Approved by Clinique La Colline since 1998
- Approved by the Clinique des Grangettes since 1998
- Approved by L'Hôpital de la Tour since 1998

Memberships

- Member of the European Society of Medical Oncology (ESMO) since 1995
- Member of the European Haematology Association (EHA) since 1995
- Member of the Swiss Society of Haematology (SSH) since 1996
- Member of the Swiss Society of Medical Oncology (SSOM) since 1996
- Member of the Swiss Society of Internal Medicine (SSMI) since 1997
- Member of the American Association for Apheresis (ASFA) from 1997 to 2001
- Member of the Swiss Association for Transfusion Medicine (ASMT) since 1998
- Member of the American Association of Oncology (ASCO) since 1999
- Member of the American Society of Haematology (ASH) since 2004
- Member of the Association des Médecins de Genève
- GROG, and SonGe

- Founding member of RGOT (Geneva Thoracic Oncology Network) from 2013

Accreditation

Clinique Générale-Beaulieu

Specialties

Oncology

Contact

Rue Jacques-Grosselin 25
1227 1227 Carouge

T +41 22 827 40 86
secretariatfl@laurencet.com

Download vCard